

Kasey Pearson

About

Kasey Pearson is a student attending the University of Washington full time, who also works and lives on campus. While she's not in class, Kasey spends her time participating in the students organizations that she's apart of and going to the IMA.

"I'd just like to know if there's an easier and quicker way for me to get what I need and go."

Frustrations

- Does not always know nor have time to search through buildings for restrooms with hygiene products.

Age: 21

Year: Junior

Occupation: Full Time Student

Location: Seattle, WA

Goals

- Frequently participate in school events and organizations in order to expand network and experiences.
- Get to know the University of Washington campus better.

Values

- Actively involved in student organizations, activities and events around campus.
- Regularly attends classes as well as the IMA in order to keep a busy schedule.